

REJURAN – SALMON DNA – SKIN BOOSTER AFTERCARE AND CONSENT FORM

Procedural Description

The Rejuran Skin Booster is an advanced skin rejuvenation treatment utilizing polynucleotides (PN), which are DNA fragments extracted from salmon. These polynucleotides are bio-compatible with human tissue, meaning they integrate safely into the skin without adverse reactions. Known for their regenerative properties, these DNA fragments promote collagen production, enhance skin elasticity, and improve overall skin texture.

Rejuran's formulation is particularly recognized in both aesthetic and medical fields for its wound healing and tissue repair capabilities. It has been used to support the recovery of damaged skin by accelerating cellular repair and reducing inflammation. In this treatment, Rejuran is injected into the mid to deep layers of the skin, allowing it to act directly on the skin's foundational structure.

Rejuran is especially effective in addressing early signs of aging, such as fine lines, dull skin, uneven tone, and textural irregularities. By rejuvenating the skin from within, this treatment promotes a smoother, more hydrated, and youthful complexion.
